COMING SOON: Watch Your Booty Pirate's Weekend - August 3-5

The pirates invade CRC this weekend and it's never been more fun! Pillage with us on the banks of the pond Friday night with our Meet and Greet bonfires.

You need to design and build a boat that can carry a brick the length of the pond without tipping, flipping, or sinking in the record time, oh and being powered with the air from a leaf blower! Either build it before or work on it here, but we are looking for whatever floats your boat on Saturday @ 2pm. Awards will be given for most creative boat ($50.00) and to the winner of the race ($50.00).

We all know that Pirates like their brew, so we added a special treat, a keg and boxed wine for Club Solitude Saturday night! Come be the pirate you always wanted to be!

With Morning Joe at 9 a.m. at The Lodge Sunday, you will have stolen a golden weekend to be at CRC. That's the pirate way!

RECENT EVENT: Christmas in July – July 19-22

CRC celebrated Christmas in July starting with a nice bonfire, followed by a lively gift exchange in the Lodge on Friday evening. On Saturday, campers decorated their campers, tents, cabins and anything else they wanted to decorate in anticipation of the competition for Best Seasonal Site, Best Weekend Site and Best Decorated Christmas Tree. Santa, Mrs. Claus and their Boy Elf, invited all seasonal members and guests to be judges for the evening as a group walked the campground to judge. The decorated trees were in Club Solitude and all in attendance were able to cast their votes for Best Tree. Our guests from Canada took home two of the prizes, Best Weekend Site for the decorating of Site 22, the Deluxe Cabin and Best Decorated Christmas Tree for their heart inspired tree. Best seasonal site was once again award to Jim Todd and Mud Mike for their multi-site light extravaganza synchronized to music. Congratulations to all the winners.

In addition, the camp was illuminated with luminaries provided by CRC Management and then placed and lighted by Aaron, Jeff and Nathan of JAMAC Entertainment. The weekend concluded with coffee and sweets at The Lodge on Sunday morning.
