Reservation Reminders

If you plan to camp at CRC, please contact the office as soon as possible to book your reservations. Our weekend events are extremely popular, and we have limited space remaining for most weekends.

In order to help support social distancing the number of Day Passes available are limited. Day Passes sell out early on Saturday and Sunday. Please contact the office before coming out to make sure that passes are likely to be available.

Reservations are not available for Day Passes.

All events, times and schedules are subject to change without notice.
